

You

right to agree to mental health services right to have information shared only with written permission or when required by law right to have access to your record right to amend your record right to not be discriminated against in receiving services rights to confidentiality have right to complain to the person in the Rights Office if you are unhappy with your treatment right to be free from abuse and neglect right to be protected from exploitation right to be told how much treatment will cost and appeal if you disagree an individualized written plan of service rights

right to be treated with dignity and respect in a clean, safe environment right to change your mind when you believe your treatment plan is no longer in your best interest right to Person Centered Planning right to know your additional rights while living in a licensed AFC home right to be informed of your progress when receiving services from Barry County Community Mental Health Authority for more information, call Holly Hess at BCCMHA

Office of Recipient Rights 269-948-8041